BE GENEROUS

mikeroweWORKS Foundation

The mikeroweWORKS foundation is a 501(c)(3) public charity that works hard to debunk myths about the trades and help close the skills gap. As the CEO, Mike Rowe speaks regularly about the country's dysfunctional relationship with work and challenges the persistent belief that a four-year degree is the best path for the most people. The mikeroweWORKS Foundation provides financial assistance to people getting trained for in-demand, skilled jobs, most notably through the Work Ethic Scholarship Program. Since its inception, it has granted, or helped facilitate the granting of, more than $5 million in scholarships or grants that support technical and vocational education.
